

CAMP DINA CAMPER DRESS CODE

The look of a Bas Yisroel should be one of refinement and good taste, even in a camping environment. Clothing, even for Shabbos, should be simple, inexpensive and practical.

By taking the time before camp to think about and pack the proper clothing, you enable us to spend the time during camp focusing on fun and great times, where our girls' unique talents and personalities can shine through. "Kol K'vod Bas Melech P'nima"

Please be sensitive to the following when shopping and packing your summer wardrobe.

- Skirts must be long enough to cover the knees (camping activities are more easily enjoyed when wearing a 'flairy' skirt)
- Sleeves must be long enough to cover the elbows.
- Necklines on all blouses and shirts must cover until the neck. (i.e. no scoop neck or v-neck shirts)
- Robes worn to the pool must offer proper coverage.
- No robes or slippers may be worn to the dining room on Shabbos.
- Socks and sneakers must be worn to all sports and outdoor activities.

TIME FOR PACKING!

The following is a suggested packing list. Requirements vary with each camper and parents are urged to use their own discretion. Laundry will be sent out to a professional service approximately once every 10 days. Name tapes with camper's full name should be sewn securely into every article of clothing. Please pre-wash any new, colored clothing as it tends to run in the wash. Items other than clothing, including luggage, should also be clearly labeled with your daughter's first and last name. A complete inventory list should be securely placed on the inside of your luggage.
